Using a layered incorporation of colonial maps, topographical charts and photographs taken on her travels to China, Australia and New Zealand, together with energy flow charts, tantric charts and acupunctural diagrams, Bebout's works examine how cartography has been used to both inform and distort our vision of the world. Harrison loves the South and rural America with a passion. With paintbrush and pen, he does his best to preserve that part of rural America that seems to be slipping away far too quickly. Jim's success is evidenced by more than 35 years as a full-time artist, producing realistic paintings of landscapes with fields of cotton and old barns, old country stores with Coca-Cola signs, and country roads lined with trees—along with paintings of seascapes, lakes, and rivers. Nov. 13 - Feb. 16, 2013 - "Tarleton Blackwell". Blackwell has established himself as one of the leading visual interpreters of the rural South. In his celebrated "Hog Series," begun nearly twenty years ago and now consisting of over two hundred and fifty works, Blackwell explores the rich iconography of the region, incorporating elements of art history, children's tales, persistent stereotypes and even commercial imagery. Much of the allure of Blackwell's work rests in his complex, dense, and often ambiguous imagery that plays as part allegory, part fairytale, and part social commentary. Blackwell creates a complete topography of the rural South, grounded in his experience but overlaid with historical and literary musings. Admission: Yes. Hours: Wed.-Fri, 10am-5pm; Sat., 10am-5pm; and till 9pm on 3rd Thur. of each month. Closed on national holidays. Contact: 864/582-7616 or at (www.spartanburgartmuseum.org).
