Serving the Art Community from New York to Charleston to Laguna Beach

Gibbes Museum of Art

the Gibbes houses a premier collection of over 10,000 works, principally American with a Charleston or Southern connection, and presents special exhibitions throughout the year. In addition, the museum offers an extensive complement of public programming and educational outreach initiatives that serve the community by stimulating creative expression and improving the region's superb quality of life. Highlights of the Gibbes collection can now be viewed on Google Art Project at (www.googleartproject.com).

For further information check our SC Institutional Gallery listings, call the Museum at 843/722-2706 or visit (www.gibbesmuseum.org).

City of North Charleston, SC, Features Works by Charlynn M. Knight and Gingi Martin

The City of North Charleston's Cultural Arts Department is pleased to announce that watermedia paintings by the City's current Artist-in-Residence, Charlynn M. Knight, as well as oil paintings by Pineville, SC, based artist, Gingi Martin, will be on exhibit at the North Charleston City Gallery from Jan. 2 - 31, 2014. The artists will host a free public reception at the gallery from 5-7pm on Jan. 2.

In Visions of the Lowcountry Through a New Perspective, Charlynn M. Knight presents watercolor paintings that depict the beauty of the everyday. Her recent works feature scenes captured during afternoon walks down well-worn dirt roads and paddling through the Lowcountry's coastal waters in a kayak. Her approach with watermedia captures the "glow" and vibrant colors and textures of her subjects, which include the marshes, avenues of oaks, Lowcountry wildlife, and Deep South beauty and charm that coastal South Carolina has to offer.

Knight, a native Charlestonian, received a BA in Studio Art from the College of Charleston in 1994 and continues to further her painting knowledge through workshops with national and international artists. She has worked primarily in watercolor for over 28 years and has received numerous awards for her paintings. She has taught visual art classes and workshops in all media for children and adults since 1990, and is currently offering residencies to North Charleston schools and community groups as the City's 2013/14 Artist-in-Residence. Knight's work has been published in International Artist Magazine and her paintings are featured in several private and corporate collections, including the City of North Charleston's Public Art Collection. Presently her work is available at Karen's Korner in Mt. Pleasant,
