Curated by Charleston-based artist Reynier Llanes, this exhibition includes works by more than a dozen Cuban artists. The artwork, drawn from Llanes' personal collection, reflects ideas of freedom and expression in Cuba following the Revolution. Although they range in style, the works share a common message of harmony, unity, family and reflect today's Cuban society. An Artist Lecture will be given on Dec. 7, beginning at 3pm. Hours: Tue.-Fri., 10am-6pm & Sat.-Sun., noon-5pm. Contact: 843/958-6484 or (<http://city-galleryatwaterfrontpark.com/>).

Gibbes Museum of Art, 135 Meeting Street, Charleston. Main Gallery, Through Jan. 5, 2014 - "Photography and the American Civil War," an exhibit organized by The Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York. This landmark exhibition brings together more than 200 of the finest and most poignant photographs of the American Civil War. Through examples drawn from The Metropolitan's celebrated holdings, complemented by important loans from public and private collections, the exhibition will examine the evolving role of the camera during the nation's bloodiest war. The "War between the States" was the great test of the young Republic's commitment to its founding precepts; it was also a watershed in photographic history. The camera recorded from beginning to end the heartbreaking narrative of the epic four-year war (1861-1865) in which 750,000 lives were lost. First, Second and Third Floor Galleries, Ongoing - "The Charleston Story". Drawn from the museum's permanent collection, this exhibition highlights significant people, places, and periods from Charleston's beginning as a British colony, through the American Revolution, the later ravages of the Civil War, and culminating today as a culturally diverse and dynamic community. Ongoing - "Hands On!" This exhibit features works of art selected from the Gibbes Museum of Art's touch collection. Museum Shop - Now offering the inventory of the Tradd Street Press, reproductions of works by Elizabeth O'Neill Verner among other exhibit related art objects. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun., 1-5pm; closed Mon. Admission: Yes. Contact:

843/722-2706 or at (www.gibbesmuseum.org).

Halsey Institute of Contemporary Art, The Marion and Wayland H. Cato Jr. Center for the Arts, College of Charleston School of the Arts, 161 Calhoun St., Charleston. Through Dec. 14 - "Renée Stout: Tales of the Conjure Woman". The exhibition will feature recent works by this Washington, DC-based artist who is best known for her exploration of vestigial retentions of African culture traditions as manifested in contemporary America. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 11am-4pm. Contact: Mark Sloan at 843/953-4422 or at (www.halsey.cofc.edu).

Karpeles Manuscript Museum, 68 Spring Street, corner of Spring & Coming Streets, Charleston, in the former St. James Methodist Church, founded in 1797. Ongoing - Featuring historically important documents from our permanent Charleston collection. Redux Contemporary Art Center, featuring Redux Studios, 136 St. Philip Street, Charleston. Through Jan. 11, 2014 - "Everything Left to Chant: James Brendan Williams," curated by Michael Rooks, Wieland Family Curator of Modern and Contemporary Art at the HIGH Museum of Art in Atlanta, GA. Composed of industrial and found materials, the uncanny installations of James Brendan Williams evoke common, yet rarely noticed, components of the built environment. Provisional structures, street signs, and cast-off objects are brought from the periphery to the center in this emerging artist's vision. In a process he describes as "uncoding," Williams infuses these everyday objects with new resonances that are at once beautiful, humorous, and disquieting. Through his cross-media practice, Williams also pushes at the boundaries between the handmade and mass-produced, natural and artificial, art and "non-art" materials. Stripped of fixed meaning, the work reflects and amplifies the wonder and absurdity of the changing world around us. Hours: Tue.-Thur., 10am-7pm & Sat., noon-5pm. Contact: 843/722-0697 or at (www.reduxstudios.org).

The Charleston Museum, 360 Meeting Street, Charleston. Founded in 1773, is America's first museum. Through Mar. 10, 2014 - "Our Duty was Quite Arduous," part of the Sesquicentennial exhibit to share archaeological finds from "Little Folly Island" Civil War Site. The Union Encampment on Little Folly Island, 1863-1865. This original exhibition presents Civil War artifacts recovered by Charleston Museum archaeologists from the beach of "Little Folly Island." Accelerated erosion caused by Hurricane Hugo in September 1989 uncovered a wealth of materials from the Federal presence there during the Civil War. Most were remarkably preserved and now provide a rare glimpse into the daily lives of Union soldiers garrisoned on Folly Island. Historic Textiles Gallery, Through Mar. 30, 2014 - "Quintessential Quilts," featuring an original exhibition of some of the Museum's finest examples of quilting from the late 18th century through the 20th century. Included will be representative work from the major quilting categories - whole-cloth, chintz appliqué, pieced, traditional appliqué, paper-template pieced or mosaic, crazy and modern. Several quilts included in the exhibition are recent donations and will be exhibited for the first time. Ongoing - Featuring the most extensive collection of South Carolina cultural and scientific collections in the nation, it also owns two National Historic Landmark houses, the Heyward-Washington House (1772) and the Joseph Manigault House (1803), as well as the Dill Sanctuary, a 580-acre wildlife preserve. Admission: Yes. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 9am-5pm & Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 843/722-2996 or at (www.charlestonmuseum.org).
