Sims' photographs capture simulated Iraqi and Afghani villages in the US where troops train prior to their overseas deployment. This exhibition provides a glimpse into a world rarely seen and shows us aspects of what life is like for US soldiers from recruitment, to training for the battlefield. Also included in this exhibition are works from his series "Hearts and Minds" where Sims has captured images of young men and teenagers at the "Virtual Army Experience", a traveling road show and recruiting event the US Army takes cross-country to NASCAR races and air shows. Participants wait in line to enter a large tent, where they play video games produced by the army and meet decorated soldiers who have returned from service at the fronts in Iraq and Afghanistan. Through Jan. 3, 2014 - "Lori Larusso: Homefront". The exhibition presents her beautiful and brightly colored, shaped paintings featuring representations of middle-America, interior spaces and manicured semi-private outdoor spaces that suggest a relative level of comfort and social acceptance. The architecture and objects represented in these works, such as a stainless steel toaster or an umbrella patio table, conjure a decidedly 1950's nostalgia for American Dream. These elements confirm and at times question the stability of the situation and remind the viewer of the culture we maintain on a daily basis. Artisan Center Gift Shop - Featuring art objects from local and regional artists.
