Myrtle Beach / Grand Strand

Work by Jennifer York

Franklin G. Burroughs • Simeon B. Chapin Art Museum, 3100 South Ocean Blvd., beside Springmaid Beach, Myrtle Beach. Through Feb. 25 - "A Quarter Past: Highlights From Our Collection". A quarter of a century has passed since first opening our doors in June of 1997, and oh, the heights to which we have soared! Our first 25 years are surely something to look back on with joy, pride and gratitude – gratitude for our supportive patrons and visitors; for our beautiful, historic and homey building with our oceanside setting; for the amazing artists with whom we've been able to work and exhibit, and for the five extraordinary art collections we've amassed. Jan. 10 - Apr. 16 - "Randi Reiss-McCormack - Wonderlust". Originally from Boston, MA, Randi Reiss-McCormack currently lives and works as an artist, adjunct professor at Maryland Institute College of Art (Baltimore, MD) and as the Associate Director of Sol Print Studio, a small artist's press. For the last eight years, she has been the Artist-in-Residence at the St. Francis Neighborhood Center. She obtained her undergraduate degree in painting and printmaking at Cornell University (Ithaca, NY), spent a year working in various printmaking and painting studios in Paris and earned her graduate degree at The

Maryland Institute College of Art. Jan 19 - Apr. 16 - "Jennifer York - Estuary Blues." York is a lifelong artist and explorer. She grew up in rural Indiana, earned a BFA in Sculpture with an Art History minor from Pratt Institute and a MFA in Fibers from Savannah College of Art and Design. In 2003, she founded Jennythreads Studio in Asheville, NC, producing fine handmade apparel for stylish women, crafting an independent, creative living for 19 years. In 2018-19, York traveled to a dozen countries for four monthlong international art residencies, where she filled sketchbooks with observational drawings and created a series of collapsible carousel pop-up book sculptures that fit in her carry-on suitcase. Jan. 26 - Apr. 16 - "The Supper Table," is a homage to the 40th anniversary of Judy Chicago's 1979 epic feminist art exhibition, is a multidisciplinary arts project celebrating the history and contributions of 12 extraordinary South Carolina women. The brainchild of writer, editor and Jasper Project executive director Cindi Boiter, The Supper Table features the work of almost 60 of South Carolina's most outstanding women artists in the visual, literary, theatrical, and film arts. ## Orangeburg

Cecil Williams Civil Rights Museum, 1865 Lake Drive, Orangeburg. Ongoing - Established in 2019, the exquisite ultra-modern facility displays 1000 images of the Civil Rights Movement, but from the perspective of The Epochal South Carolina Events That Changed America. The massive archives comprise the largest collection of images of this type among all museums in the United States; including the Atlanta based High Museum which archives 300 images. The images were created by the founder, Cecil Williams, who began photography at age 9 and covered almost all historically significant events in South Carolina; from 1950 Briggs v. Elliot in Summerton, thru the 1969 Charleston Hospital Workers' Strike...and Beyond. From 1955 through 1969, Williams was a freelance journalist for "JET" magazine. His images have appeared in thousands of magazines, newspapers, historical publications, and motion picture productions. The museum design itself is part of the founders' DNA because; upon graduating from high school, Williams wanted to attend Clemson University to study architecture but denied because of his race. He then purchased a drafting board and through the years, designed three residences; including one featured in "EBONY", and the museum's design which has evolved into a living history facility. Hours: call ahead for hours. Contact: call 803-531-1662 or at (www.cecilwilliams.com).

Ridgeland

Work by Kirkland Smith

Morris Center for Lowcountry Heritage, 10782 Jacob Smart Blvd. S., on US 17, in a 1937 historic Sinclair Service Station, Ridgeland. Jan. 14 - July 15 - "The (In)disposable Art of Kirkland Smith". The art installation is a playful collection of assemblages. Drawing on her love of realism and portraiture, Smith creates 3-dimensional works that speak to environmental responsibility in a fresh, evocative way. For example, to portray the problem of overconsumption and its effects on society, she uses everyday disposable objects as her medium rather than the subject of her work. The artist hopes to spark an awareness of consumer habits and attitudes, driving home the message that while what we throw away says much about who we are, what we choose to cherish and protect says more in the end. Ongoing - Morris Center for Lowcountry Heritage hosts exhibitions on local history, art, and culture. We also provide hands-on art workshops throughout the year. Admission: FREE. Hours: Tue.-Fri., 10am-4pm and Sat., 10am-2pm. Contact: 843/284-9227 or at (www.MorrisHeritageCenter.org).

ALTERNATE ART SPACES - Rock Hill White Street Gallery, 130 West White Street, Rock Hill. On Permanent Display, until the material on which they are printed begins to deteriorate - "ALLEYS AS GALLERY'S". The Arts Council of York County implemented the Alleys as Gallery's program with an exhibition in Cotton Alley on East Main St. in Rock Hill in 2018. This new project serves as the second Alleys as Gallery's installation. Alleys as Gallery's transforms York County, South Carolina's well-traveled alleys into art galleries that feature works by local and regional artists. Works by six York County high school students, Bruna Coelho, Luc Mercado, Paige Evans, Heather Lenti, Ashley Walsh, and Hunter Sigmond, were selected for a public art installation on the fence between Dust OFF Brewing Company and the Lowenstein Building along the Williams & Fudge fence line that faces White Street.
