STARworks in Star, NC, Offers Lineup for Firefest 2015

FireFest, a two-day festival celebrating the role of fire in the creation of art, will be held at STARworks in Star, NC, Apr. 3 and 4, 2015. Guest artists will create art, hold slide shows and participate in finale events involving fire.

Work by Carol Gentithes 2015 FireFest guest artist

Ceramic artist Carol Gentithes will create a large ceramic sculpture that will be fired during the festival and revealed when it has reached peak firing temperature and is still aflame during the Saturday night finale. Gentithes is a Seagrove, NC, artist who is best known for her quixotic sculptures that are hand built with coils. The sculptures are often satirical and narrative.

Glasswork by Einar and Jamex de la Torre

Glass artists Einar and Jamex de la Torre will perform demonstrations and create art at Firefest. The brothers were born in Guadalajara, Mexico and grew up in Southern California. Their glass sculptures incorporate themes about Mexican and American culture. Though their work is very playful, it also addresses serious cultural and historical topics.

Artists from Liberty Arts of Durham will lead the iron pour at Firefest

Liberty Arts Sculpture Studio and Foundry, based out of Durham, NC, will lead the iron pour during the Saturday evening finale events. Artists will create molds that will be filled with molten iron. Visitors will have the opportunity to purchase scratch molds to create their own designs and have them filled during this time. A workshop is available for those who would like pointers. Liberty Arts serves as an incubator in which artists work together to teach, learn and inspire.

Attendees can try working with hot glass, metal or clay at STARworks Open Studios, Friday evening. More in-depth workshops in each medium will be offered Saturday, including group metal sculpture workshops led by Mac Metz to create a large phoenix.

Other activities include an art sale, fire tornado, live music, locally-brewed beer and food vendors. Finale events, slide shows, demonstrations, live music, a sculpture workshop by Carol Gentithes and observing artists at work is included in the price of admission.

Daily admission is $5. Children 12 and younger are admitted free. Open Studios and workshops will be an additional cost. More information and a complete schedule of events can be found at (www.STARworksNC.org).

STARworks is seeking volunteers for FireFest. Volunteers are needed to help with check-in, gallery sales, answering questions, monitoring the entrance and directing attendees.

Volunteers who work three hours will receive free admission for the day and a coupon that can be used at Hot Glass, Cold Beer.

Those interested in volunteering should contact Mary Holmes by e-mailing to (mary@centralparknc.org) or calling 910/428-9001.

STARworks is a project of Central Park NC, a non-profit organization dedicated to improving the economy of the region by focusing on the sustainable use of our natural and cultural resources. STARworks is located at 100 Russell Drive in Star, just off I-73/74 in northern Montgomery County.
