Tomova's paintings are large-size watercolors reminiscing on her recent trip to Paris painted in her usual bold and impressionistic style. Her work is full of passion that celebrates rather than contemplates. It's an impulse that captures a moment full of feeling and beauty. Jain's works primarily with soft pastel and charcoal. She is inspired by the tension between forms, shapes and movement in the natural world, and aspires to capture this conflict and movement towards harmony through her work. Her work is mostly inspired from nature. It is an impressionistic response to light and colors seen in nature. Both artists feature series of landscapes in different yet complimentary styles using bright and lively palettes. Ongoing - Our gallery is located in Ashworth Village in historic downtown Cary, behind Ashworth Drug in the plaza, corner of Academy and Chatham Streets.
