Greenville Museum of Art, 802 South Evans Street, Greenville. Commons Gallery, Mar. 3 - 31 - "Assembly Required," featuring works by Anthony Naimo, an East Carolina University MFA Thesis Exhibition. A reception will be held on Mar. 3, from 5-8pm. Anthony Naimo is a multidisciplinary found object artist working in digital collage and mixed-media sculpture. A theme throughout his art is that of coalescence: the act of independent units unifying or coming together in one body or mass. This phenomenon of transcendence through togetherness is the essence of his artistic process. Naimo received his bachelor's degree in Studio Photography at Northwest Missouri State University and is studying as an MFA candidate in Metals Design at East Carolina University. West Wing Gallery, Mar. 3 - 31 - "River Rat," featuring works by Morgan Zichettella, an East Carolina University MFA Thesis Exhibition. A reception will be held on Mar. 3, from 5-8pm. Zichettella grew up as a river rat with the marsh as her playground on the east coast of Savannah, Georgia. She attained her BFA in photography and a minor in graphic design from Georgia Southern University. She is currently based in Greenville, North Carolina, as a photography MFA candidate at East Carolina University. Morgan works in all aspects of photography, from analog, and alternative processes, to digital and mixed media. She builds connections across the past and present by marrying historical photographic processes with modern-day techniques. Her current work focuses on taking a moment, finding Selah, and appreciating the little things. She's on a never-ending journey to refresh the ways people view photography. The Francis Speight and Sarah Blakeslee Gallery, Ongoing - Is dedicated to the work of these two artists. Speight was born in Bertie County, North Carolina, and moved back to Greenville to teach at East Carolina University after spending a majority of his career at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts. Blakeslee was born in Illinois and met Speight at the Academy as a student. The couple lived outside of Philadelphia until moving to Greenville in 1961. The Kenneth Noland Gallery, Ongoing - Celebrates the art and legacy of Black Mountain College, an innovative liberal arts college that operated between 1933 and 1957. Kenneth Noland, born in Asheville in 1924, attended Black Mountain College on the G. I. Bill from 1946 to 1948. He studied under Josef Albers and Ilya Bolotowsky, who introduced him to the work of artists interested in geometry and color. The Rachel Maxwell Moore Art Foundation Gallery, Ongoing - Features rotating works purchased for the Museum by the foundation. Rachel Maxwell Moore was a leading civic figure and arts advocate in Greenville. and was central to the founding of the Museum's predecessor in 1939. She established the Rachel Maxwell Moore Art Foundation in 1963, and before she passed away in 1964, bequeathed funds to the foundation for the sole purpose of purchasing works of art for the Museum's permanent collection. Ongoing - GMoA has a strong collection of North Carolina pottery, and especially from Jugtown Pottery in Seagrove, North Carolina. Jugtown Pottery was opened by Jacques and Juliana Busbee in 1921. They were influential at Jugtown and elsewhere in Seagrove by introducing local North Carolina potters to international ceramic styles and glazes. Much of our pottery collection was given to the Museum by Mrs. Lindsay Savage in 1948 and Dr. James H. Stewart in the 1980s. Admission: Free. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10-4:30pm. Contact: 252/758-1946 or at (www.gmoa.org).

Charles White [1918-1979], "Sound of Silence", 1978, lithograph, Private collection. Image © The Charles White Archives - Hickory MOA

Hickory Museum of Art, Arts and Science Center, 243 Third Avenue NE, Hickory. Shuford & Regal Galleries, Through Mar. 12 - "collectHMA: Pacific - Atlantic". This exhibition mines the Museum's collection paying tribute to the oceans connected by the Panama Canal. For centuries, artists have flocked to the sea to capture the windswept beauty of the Pacific and Atlantic Oceans. Artists in the exhibition include NC Wyeth, Paul Dougherty, Jane Peterson, Elnora Hamilton, Arthur B. Davies, Hugo Sperger, Maud Gatewood, Alfred T. Bricher and more. Coe Gallery, Mar. 18 - July 30 - "Charles White: A Little Higher". Charles White [1918-1979] is widely recognized as one of the most important and influential African American artists of the 20th Century. Over the course of a 40-year career, he created powerfully gripping interpretations of the Black experience, with a confidence and technical skill that defined his mastery as a painter and draftsman. Although his art focused nearly exclusively on African American subjects, he believed his work had a broader appeal, stating, "I like to think that my work has a universality to it. I deal with love, hope, courage, freedom, and dignity – the full gamut of the human experience." Entire Third Floor, Ongoing - "Discover Folk Art: Unique Visions by Southern Contemporary Folk Artists". A unique experience for the whole family to investigate the Museum's extensive Southern Contemporary Folk Art Collection. The Exhibition Features: • Re-creations of Artists' Working Environments • Over 200 Folk Art Objects • Sounds & Smells • and More!
