lem Symphony and young German artist Andreas Nicolas Fischer, sound becomes a malleable material to re-imagine in multiple forms. At SECCA Fischer will exhibit drawings, photos and videos that visualize data in sublime ways through digital lenses. On May 12 and 14, he will be on stage with the Symphony for a pair of unique performances – turning their music into real-time video projection. He will also record all the audio from these performances, and translate the ensuing soundscape into a sculpture cut by a local CNC Milling Machine operation. Curated by Steven Matijcio and Robert Moody. Through Sept. 1 - "Tomory Dodge & Denyse Thomasos: Directions to a Dirty Place," organized by SECCA; curated by Steven Matijcio. Paint can be both the image and the "stuff" of structure, moving between representation of place, and place itself. The work of Denver-born, Los Angeles-based artist Tomory Dodge and Trinidad-born, New York-based artist Denyse Thomasos slide between these poles in highly evocative ways. While much of Dodge's imagery is drawn from things observed during excursions into the California desert, much is left to fantasy as his maps move between geography and cosmology. Thomasos creates architecture with, and through paint – spanning multiple scales to suggest the blueprints of places half-real, half-imagined. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm, Thur. till 8pm; Sun., 1-5 pm, and closed Mon. & state holidays. Admission is free. Contact: 336/725-1904 or at (www.secca.org).
