Tori Hurst at the 2013 Clemson Festival of ARTS

Catherine Smith Plaza and Jaycee and Abernathy Parks in downtown Clemson. May 17, 10am-5pm - "4th Clemson Festival of ARTS". This festival, the only one of its kind in the city, is becoming an annual tradition for the third weekend in May. The Arts Center of Clemson puts on this free admission event that provides fun, entertainment, and artistic enrichment for all ages. Dozens of local and regional artists will have booths lining the blocked off street that runs between the plaza and the parks--demonstrating their different crafts and selling their works. Local musicians will perform on the Duke Energy Stage throughout the duration of the festival, including an interactive performance by Buffalo Barfield that will be geared toward children in the morning hours. Local musicians will continue performing throughout the afternoon. The parks will be dedicated to free art activities for kids of all ages, and there will be other individual and community art projects offered throughout the festival, all free of charge. Local vendors will have food and drink for sale throughout the day, as well. Come enjoy a blissful day in downtown Clemson and take home a new masterpiece or even make one yourself! The Arts Center of Clemson and all festival friends and sponsors invite everyone to come dabble in the arts! Call 864/633-5051 or visit (www.exploreats.org) for more information.

Columbia Area

Columbia Museum of Art, Main & Hampton Streets, Columbia. May 16 - Sept. 14 - "Animal Instinct: Paintings by Shelley Reed". The exhibition illustrates animals in exquisite detail in the tradition of Old Master painting - but with a contemporary twist. May 16 - Sept. 14 - "Cheer for the Home Team! Animal Mascots in the Collection". The exhibition explores the power and symbolism that animals have to rally our spirits and camaraderie. Mamie and William Andrew Treadway, Jr. Gallery 15, Through May 18 - "Meiji Magic: Imperial Porcelain from Japan". After years of shogun rule, in 1868 Japan was once again ruled by an Emperor. He took the name Meiji which means "enlightened rule". This period is called the Meiji Restoration and lasted until 1912. The government realized that Japanese arts and crafts could be exported to answer the Western curiosity about Japanese culture and to help stabilize the Japanese economy. The province of Satsuma was a particularly important producer of porcelains and stoneware during this rich period of production. BB&T Focus Gallery, Ongoing - "Southern Traditions," will showcase the richness and diversity of the Museum's collection of furniture, ceramics, silver, basketry, sculpture and paintings by artists native to, or active in, South Carolina and its surrounding states. Among the works on view will be fine silver made by Charleston and Columbia silversmiths; a sweet grass basket by Mary Jackson (SC, born 1945); wood carvings by Edgar Alexander McKillop (NC, 1879-1950); and paintings by Charles Fraser (SC, 1782-1860), Xanthus Russell Smith (SC, 1839-1929), William Harrison Scarborough (SC, 1812-1871), William Aiken Walker (SC, 1838-1921), among others. Galleries 5 & 6, Ongoing - "Modern & Contemporary Art from the Collection". Celebrating some of the CMA's greatest hits, this exhibition features over 30 paintings, drawings, photographs and sculptures from the Museum's collection that have not been on view recently. It offers the visitor experiences both serious and sensual and is designed to both entertain and enlighten. Notable works included are by Jasper Johns, Howard Thomas, Sally Mann and Edward Ruscha, whose famous image of the Hollywood Hills (on view) has become a staple of the art world. Ray Taylor Fair Gallery, Ongoing - Featuring a new and permanent installation of its ancient art collection. The installation includes approximately 50 objects that introduce the major ancient civilizations from the Mediterranean and Near East. Examples of the earliest form of writing from 12th century B.C. Mesopotamia, are shown next to Egyptian scarabs and Greek painted vessels. The world of the ancient Romans is represented by 2nd century glass and bronze items and portrait sculpture. Many of these works have not been seen since the Museum moved to its location on Main Street in 1998. The collection has grown over the last several years with the donation of 12 fine Roman sculptures in 2002 from Pennsylvania collector Dr. Robert Y. Turner. Admission: Yes, but there is no admission charge on Sun. Hours: Tue.-Fri., 11am-5pm; first Fri., till 8pm; Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun., noon-5pm.
