

fabric and filling bound with stitches – but break from traditional notions of quilting. The works in this exhibition represent a variety of materials and process including recycled fabric, paint, dye, digital printing, screen printing and hand- and machine-stitching to name a few. A common thread that runs through the exhibition is the way in which these artists use fabric to tell a story. Whether a childhood memory, a legend, a dream or a tall tale, it is told through the manipulation of cloth. June 7 - Aug. 3 - "Flora & Fauna: WNC Art Educators Juried Exhibit". An awards reception will be held on July 19, beginning at 5:30pm. Every two years the Fine Art Museum celebrates the work of those artists who teach our children in K-12 schools across Western North Carolina. The artists for this exhibit have been selected by juror Mary Stewart, an artist, educator and author of "Launching the Imagination: A Comprehensive Guide to Basic Design," a text that helps to build foundations for young and aspiring artists across the nation. This year's theme for the exhibition is native flora and fauna of the southeast. Through Aug. 3 - "Lasting Impressions: Print Portfolio of Contemporary Native American Artists From the Permanent Collection of the Fine Art Museum, Western Carolina University." The exhibit is a collaboration between master printer Jack Lemon and 10 Native American artists. The artists worked together to create a portfolio of prints representative of the current trends in contemporary Native American art. The purchase of this collection was made possible by a grant from the Cherokee Preservation Foundation. Through Sept. 7 - "John Heliker: Drawing on the New Deal". The exhibition marks the rediscovery of a remarkable and largely unknown body of work by an eminent American artist. An extraordinarily accomplished draftsman, John Heliker (1909-2000) developed a highly personal and expressive approach to drawing during the WPA years. In the postwar years, Heliker earned critical acclaim for his bold experimentations with biomorphic and architectonic abstraction. Ongoing - "World-views," featuring selections from the Permanent Collection and new acquisitions featuring regional, national and international artists' works in all media. Hours: Tue.-Fri., 10am-4pm & Sat., 1-4pm. Contact: 828/227-3591 or at (<http://www.wcu.edu/museum/>).
