Spartanburg

Throughout downtown Spartanburg, 3rd Thursday, from 5-8pm - "Spartanburg ArtWalk," a free self-guided tour through participating galleries across Spartanburg's Cultural District. Contact: visit (www.chapmanculturalcenter.org).

Throughout downtown Spartanburg's Cultural District, Ongoing - The Creative Crosswalk Project is a public art initiative in which local artists and designers design and paint a series of crosswalk murals, transforming the crosswalks into works of art, on Main Street in Spartanburg, SC. The downtown cultural district area is often bustling with events and pedestrians, and the pedestrians rely heavily on a multitude of crosswalks to safely traverse the downtown Spartanburg area. The problem is that crosswalks are incredibly easy to overlook, they are rarely visually appealing, and they can even be quite dangerous. For more info visit (<https://www.chapmanculturalcenter.org/pages/blog/detail/article/c0/a1555/>).

Work by Glenda Guion

Artists Collective I Spartanburg, 578 West Main St., Spartanburg. Gallery II, July 2 - 27 - "Evolve," featuring photographs by Joe Hiltabidel. A reception will be held on July 18, until 8pm, during the Spartanburg ArtWalk. The photographs in Upstate artist Joe Hiltabidel's upcoming exhibition began with a dream about cereal, but also represent his personal evolution in life. "This entire body of work began with a single dream about cereal," Hiltabidel says. "When I woke up, I told my wife, Shelly, I was going to try to recreate what I saw in the dream and that became my photograph 'Evolve.' Each subsequent piece in this exhibit was directly inspired by the true love story I share with my wife, favorite childhood memories or the positive side of humanity left in the world." Solo-mon Gallery, July 2 - Aug. 24 - "Archetypes: Hand Built Clay," featuring works by Glenda Guion. A reception will be held on July 18, until 8pm, during the Spartanburg ArtWalk. An artist's talk will be held at 6pm on Aug. 15, as part of Spartanburg ArtWalk till 8pm. Glenda Guion says the artwork in her upcoming exhibition, "Archetypes: Hand Built Clay," is intended to reflect the world around her in her life right now. "I have been hand building with red earthenware clay for over 40 years. For the past 11 years, I have been living on two acres of land that includes 16 magnolia trees, pines, seed pods, blueberry bushes, gravel paths, owls and the occasional snake," Guion says. "I am currently making work that attempts to reflect where I am in the world, influenced by the beauty found in my own backyard." Ongoing - The Collective features a twenty thousand square foot facility offering affordable studio space, retail space, three galleries, a full ceramics studio, printery, and works by 50 local artists. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm; with extended hours on the 3rd Thur. of each month until 9pm for Spartanburg's Art Walk. Contact: 864/804-6501 or at (artistscollectivespartanburg.org/).

His ties to the Spartanburg community originate from his longtime employment at Milliken and Company. Tait was born in Old Town, Maine in 1917 and graduated from the New Hampshire Institute of Arts and Science. In the late 1940s, he moved to New York City where he designed an exclusive line of ladies' handkerchiefs for the department store B. Altman, now considered vintage, collectible items. He also became associated with the American Artist Group designing Christmas cards, an occupation which he kept up throughout the majority of his artistic career. Krisel was a distinguished artist, architect, and teacher as well as a loving father and husband. Though Krisel may not be a household name among Spartanburg residents, he has made a significant artistic contribution to the Spartan-
