Work by Anne John

Charleston Crafts Cooperative Gallery, 140 East Bay Street, Charleston. July 23 - Aug. 25 - "Natural Patterns: Flora and Fauna," featuring works by Ellie Snow and Lynn Wartski. A reception will be held on July 26, from 6-9pm. For painter Ellie Snow, painting is an escape, a window into a fairy tale world where she can ponder the beauty and complexity of life, and the stories that repeat themselves, like patterns, through time. Snow's artworks begin with nature photographs taken while exploring. "At home, I collage, edit, and make double exposures to create a scene that is playful and mysterious. I think of each painting as an introduction to a story about life's fits and starts, imperfection, darkness, light, magic, weirdness, and beauty." Last year artist Lynn Wartski started to treat the surface of her anthropomorphic sculptures as an additional canvas. She created animal figures that had bold flowers, nautical "tattoos", and wintery motifs on them. Liking the results, Wartski decided to carry that idea into the sculptures for this year's show - but with a twist. "Instead of just thematic or decorative elements, I began with creatures that had distinctive natural patterns, known in the fashion world as "animal prints." Ongoing - Established in 1989, Charleston Crafts Cooperative Gallery is a dynamic community of nearly 30 jury-selected artisans. All are residents of South Carolina, making this the city's only exclusively local craft gallery.
