Sept. 13 - "Steve Jameson: Ode to the Grand Strand". Many American cities have preserved the character of their original - or at least earlier - architectural structures in historic districts. Jameson paints under the pseudonym Cedar.

Through Sept. 20 - "John Baeder's Road Well Taken". As the temperatures rise many of us reminisce about a summer ritual from childhood: vacations in the family car, often punctuated by a stop at a roadside diner. Nowadays, such classic eateries have all but vanishes, replaced by characterless fast-food chains. Artist John Baeder offers a nostalgic road trip to some of these nearly forgotten totems of American life in an exhibition of his paintings. The exhibit includes 36 paintings based on three decades' worth of photographs collected while traveling around the country.

Through Sept. 20 - "Sandy Logan: Ironic Abstraction". When it's a photograph not a photograph? When it's a work by Charleston artist and architect Sandy Logan, whose photographs focus in on such detail that their subject becomes something of a mystery. Through Sept. 20 - "Norman Rockwell's Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn," continues the Museum's tradition of presenting family-friendly exhibits featuring popular artists' work along with interactive activities for visitor of all ages. The exhibit is on loan from the Norman Rockwell Museum, Stockbridge, MA, and features 16 signed limited edition prints gifted by the artist to the Norman Rockwell Museum.

The prints are from this quintessentially American artist's own collection of the illustrations he created to accompany Mark Twain's famous works for publisher Heritage Press and Limited Edition Club in 1935. Through Sept. 29 - "Interactive Art Project 'Before I Die'". Most of us have felt or expressed the wish to do or experience something before we die. For New Orleans artist Candy Chang, that introspection was transformed into a worldwide interactive art project. In the throes of a severe depression following the 2011 death of a close friend from liver cancer, Chang conceived a project: a sort of public meditation on the meaning of life. With permission from its owner, she painted the side of an abandoned house in her neighborhood with chalkboard paint and stenciled it in a grid repeating the sentence, "Before I die I want to _____." Anyone walking by could pick up a piece of chalk, reflect on their lives and share their personal aspirations. By the next day, the wall was full of responses: "Before I die I want to... sing for millions, plant a tree, find love, see equality, straddle the International Date Line, see my daughter graduate" and more. "[The responses] reassured me that I'm not alone as I try to make sense of myself," Chang recalled. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm & Sun., 1-4pm. Contact: 843/238-2510 or at (www.myrtlebeachartmuseum.org).
