Some Exhibits That Are Still On View

Our policy at Carolina Arts is to present a press release about an exhibit only once and then go on, but many major exhibits are on view for months. This is our effort to remind you of some of them.

Work by Ben Towle

Theatre Art Galleries in High Point, NC, is presenting an exhibit of illustrations by Ben Towle, on view in Gallery B, through Aug. 7, 2015. The exhibition features original pages from his three graphic novels and one of the folk tales in its entirety. Towle is a cartoonist whose graphic novel Oyster War will be published this fall. His previous book, Amelia Earhart: This Broad Ocean (a graphic novel for young adults) was released in 2010. A Junior Library Guild selection, it received accolades from The New York Times and Publishers Weekly, among other publications. Towle's previous work includes the historical fiction graphic novel Midnight Sun as well as an earlier volume of comics folk tales. Towle has been nominated three times for the prestigious Will Eisner Comics Industry Awards. For further information call TAG at 336/887-2137 or visit (www.tagart.org).

The City of Charleston Office of Cultural Affairs in Charleston, SC, is present Remnants of the Rice Culture - Agricultural History As Art, curated by Mark Long, featuring photography by David Shriver Soliday, on view at the City Gallery at Page 8 - Carolina Arts, August 2015

"Harriet Tubman Bridge, The Combahee River, SC," by David Shriver Soliday

Waterfront Park, through Aug. 30, 2015. An artist's talk will be offered on Aug. 15, at 2pm. The exhibition of photographs by David Shriver Soliday, showcases the genesis and genealogy of the coastal rice production complex once known as the Rice Empire. This collection documents man's 300-year-old record upon the landscape and explores the intersection between agricultural history and art. Soliday's aerial perspective distinguishes the subtle fading imprints of rice production and frames the monumental scale of the precisely constructed fields, dikes and canals in ways otherwise difficult to apprehend.
