Forest Beach Road, Hilton Head. Aug. 27, 4-7pm; Sept. 24, 4-7pm; Oct. 22, 4-7pm; & Nov. 26, 12-3pm (*time change to coincide with Black Friday Coligny Events) - "Fourth Friday Artists Market at Coligny," a monthly outdoor showcase of Lowcountry art and artists. Every fourth Friday of the month from 4 to 7pm, local artists will set up tables around the lagoon at Coligny Plaza. "It's such a great opportunity for art to be viewed outside a gallery setting, and for locals and visitors alike to appreciate the talent we have here in the Lowcountry," says Kristen McIntosh, Art League General Manager. "Not everyone is comfortable yet viewing art indoors due to COVID, so this is their chance to see what they've been missing!" Items for sale include paintings and illustrations, mixed media art, sculptures, and more. The weekly markets will continue until Nov. 26, 2021. All vendors will be wearing masks and social distancing is strongly encouraged. For info contact Kristen McIntosh, General Manager Art League of Hilton Head by e-mail at (admin@artleaguehi.org) or call 843/681-5060.

Work by Lisa Rivers

Art League of Hilton Head Gallery, at the Arts Center of Coastal Carolina, 14 Shelter Cove Lane, Hilton Head Island. Aug. 3 - 28 - "Legacy Gullah Homecoming," showcases works by local artist Lisa Rivers' love of the South. A reception will be held on Aug. 11, from 5-7pm. Rivers will be holding an artist demo on Saturday, August 7, at 2pm. Please RSVP for the reception and demo by e-mail at (gallery@artleaguehi.org) to prevent overcrowding. Self-taught St. Helena artist Lisa Rivers will be exhibiting her work this August in Legacy Gullah Homecoming, a bright and colorful homage to life in the South. Rivers' love and respect for the people and culture of the Lowcountry shine through in these engaging slice-of-life vignettes and character portraits. "I create art to tell the stories of my family. I paint with love. You can feel it in each of my paint strokes and each finished piece." Ongoing - Featuring works by members of the Art League of Hilton Head. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 10am-4pm. Contact: 843/681-5060 or at (www.artleaguehi.org).

Hilton Head Regional Healthcare Gallery, Coastal Discovery Museum, at Honey Horn, off Highway 278, across from Gumtree Road, Hilton Head Island. Through Aug. 22 - "Conservation in the Classroom". This is an environmental education experience that inspires and challenges students to take action and help educate others about conservation. This program launched during the 2019-20 school year. The curriculum includes four themes for teachers to choose from (shorebirds, sea turtles, dolphins, or horseshoe crabs). Each theme includes an introduction activity led by the teacher in the classroom, an education program presented by the Coastal Discovery Museum at the school, and a hands-on classroom project for students. These projects helped students work together to spread the word about conservation. Aug. 26 - Oct. 17 - "Off the Wall," featuring works by Sheri Farbstein and Maxine Uttal. A reception will be held on Aug. 26, from 5-7 pm and the public is invited. A three-dimensional artwork exhibit showcasing sculpture, pottery and functional forms...but with a twist on talent is what you will see. This is all about students, taught by professional artists Sheri Farbstein and Maxine Uttal, exhibiting their talent and creativity in clay that wasn't apparent before attending classes. "It's not just about learning clay creation, designs, forms and glazes", said Joyce Schlosser, one of Sheri's students, but also it's the fun of seeing something from nothing take shape from week to week". Karen Wertheimer Butterfly Habitat, Ongoing - Featuring a butterfly sculpture designed and built by South Carolina artist Eric Moore. Ongoing - This beautiful 69-acre site will serve as the Museum's base for programs highlighting the cultural heritage and natural history of the Lowcountry. And, it will provide a signature venue for community events for people of all ages. The opening includes the renovation of a 6,000 sq. foot former hunting retreat, renamed the "Discovery House," containing the Museum's new interactive exhibits, temporary gallery space and community meeting rooms. Work by Ed Rice

Franklin G. Burroughs - Simeon B. Chapin Art Museum, 3100 South Ocean Blvd., beside Springmaid Beach, Myrtle Beach. Through Aug. 28 - "Leo Twiggs I Resilience". Leo Twiggs (b. 1934, St. Stephen, SC) of Orangeburg, SC, is an esteemed batik artist. His work often speaks to personal life experiences, trials and tribulations that in many ways are universal while, at the same time, offers a sense of hope, renewal and resilience with the brilliance of his palette, composition, iconography and dynamism. Over the course of his over-50-year career, Twiggs has developed his own innovative technique for painting his batiks, setting his work apart – and making it highly recognizable – from the traditional medium. With over 75 one-man shows, Twiggs' work has received international recognition. Through Sept. 4 - "Joe Karlovec I Private Property". Karlovec's exhibition consists of 12 large-scale photographic images woven into textiles using a jacquard loom. Karlovec uses the textiles to create multi-dimensional fiber collages that surprise the viewer with their texture and intensity. Through Sept. 4 - "Edward Rice I Beyond Depiction". This retrospective exhibition is a collection of 36 architectural images spanning the last 26 years of his award-winning career. Rice's paintings capture the impression of their subjects while simultaneously bringing attention to individual details such as a door, a window, or a cornice. Through Sept. 4 - "Lynne Cilbanoff I Inside Out". Cilbanoff creates small-scale box constructions with architectural detail that leaves viewers moving around -- looking around corners, up stairways, or through windows. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm & Sun., 1-4pm. Contact: 843/238-2510 or at (www.myrtlebeachartmuseum.org).
