Weatherspoon Art Museum, University of North Carolina - Greensboro, Cone Building, Tate and Spring Garden Streets, Greensboro. 2nd Floor: The Bob & Lissa Shelley McDowell Gallery, Through Aug. 5 - "Shared Space: The New Era (1987-2019) | Photographs from the Bank of America Collection". The Exhibit acts as a time capsule, traversing an evolving social landscape through photographs and video created over the span of more than 20 years. The exhibition features 35 images by 23 international artists who explore how the physical spaces in which we interact have evolved alongside our increasing access to a virtual "global village." The works illustrate the ways in which our homes and backyards, city streets and plazas, ports and airplanes, and urban and rural landscapes have grown into collective spaces through communication avenues such as the World Wide Web and social media, as well as globalization. The images range from depictions of masses of people congregating in public spaces to environments physically transformed by the demands of a global economy. 1st Floor: Louise D. and Herbert S. Falk, Sr. Gallery and Sculpture Courtyard, 2nd Floor: The Gregory D. Ivy Gallery, Weatherspoon Guild Gallery, and Gallery 6, Through Spring 2024 - "Making Room: Familiar Art, New Stories". How might the Weatherspoon better engage with museum participants to share fuller and more inclusive stories of American art? This question sparked an eighteen-month-long curatorial and programming project starting in January 2022. We've been listening to people as they share what matters to them in the museum, and we've created this installation of the museum's art collection based on what we learned. "Making Room: Familiar Art, New Stories" presents 43 artworks (see cover for a few selections) from the Weatherspoon's collection of more than 6,500. Each was chosen in response to what more than 4,000 community members told us they care about. These visitor responses—which ranged from poems to doodles to personal statements—were gathered in multiple ways. Within the Inquiry Hubs, for example, the visitor engagement team coordinated pop-up gallery performances and facilitated collection-based inquiry and play. Weatherspoon Atrium Mural, Ongoing - "Pause and Breathe, We Got This," a mural by Sheena Rose. A homecoming is in the works. The Weatherspoon is excited to announce its commission of a major new artwork by artist Sheena Rose, MFA '16. Two-dimensional work always requires the viewer to imagine the third dimension." Vickery is currently an Assistant Professor at the University of North Florida and President of the International Conference for Contemporary Cast Iron Art [ICCCIA]. Hours: 24/7. Working with repurposed materials to create textile-based works, some spanning 12 feet in length, Ben Venom contrasts the counter-culture components of gangs, punk/metal music with the comforts of domesticity. This collision of traditional quilting techniques with elements tied to the fringes of society re-envision the story of the material through a softer lens. Venom
