The artist is creating a processed version of the great outdoors that started with a series of pain-staking, detail-oriented, scaled-down pencil drawings and a gallery mock-up that is then scaled-up, re-produced, and mechanically printed to a huge, life-size proportion and installed on the gallery's walls and floor, engulfing the visitor and exaggerating marks, line-work, and distortions caused by the printing process. Drawing Gallery, Through Nov. 7 - "Rebecca Ringquist: Abstract Autobiography for a Fractured Narrative". Switching between the slow, gentle rhythm of hand embroidery to the more aggressive speed of the machine stitching, Ringquist creates unique personal and universal narratives informed by modern life infected by a Feminist sensibility. Snippets of text in varying styles, riots of textured color, almost stream of consciousness image making and laying, crowd these misshapen and upstretched fabrics. Star Atrium, Sept. 5 - Nov. 7 - "Teetering on the Edge of the Uncanny," featuring works by Gus Cutty, Hannah Dansie, Alli Good, and Ian Wilkinson. A reception will be held on Sept. 4, from 5-7pm. Its virtually impos-
