Reynolda House Museum of American Art, Reynolda Road, Winston-Salem. West Bedroom Gallery, Through Dec. 13 - "Love & Loss". Drawn from the Museum's collection and select loans, this small exhibition features two paintings, three prints, and one sculpture by artists responding directly to the recent death of a beloved child, spouse, sibling, or friend. In an outpouring of grief, intermingled with feelings of anger, sadness, or guilt, these artists were able to transmute their personal tragedy into a profound visual expression of great power and sometimes beauty. The exhibition, which will be on view for a year, examines the power of art to channel extreme loss and provides the community with a meaningful tool for self-reflection and learning. Northeast Bedroom Gallery, Sept. 5 - July 10, 2016 - "Reynolda at 100: Reynolda Gardens". Reynolda Gardens, created during the American Country Place Era when most formal gardens were intended for private use, instead reflects Katharine Smith Reynolds's interest in a landscape open and easily accessed by the surrounding community. Initially planned by landscape architect Louis Miller, the designs were finalized and perfected by Thomas Sears. The four-acre formal gardens and adjoining greenhouse welcomed 10,000 visitors in 1917 with a stunning array of annuals, perennials, and flowering shrubs; lines of Japanese cedars and Japanese weeping cherry trees; fruit and vegetable gardens; and pergolas, fountains, arbors, and shelters - most of which are still enjoyed today. Drawn largely from the historic photographs and manuscript collections from the Reynolda House Archives, many on display for the first time, this new exhibition will show the role the gardens played in Katharine Reynolds's ambitious vision for a New South and how Reynolda Gardens, built to complement and support a working estate, continues its historic mission of education and public access as Reynolda Gardens of Wake Forest University. Ongoing - Collection of 18th through 20th century art, sculpture, American art, and pottery. Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art, 750 Marguerite Drive, Winston-Salem. Through Oct. 4 - "Devin Leonardi: Figure at Dusk," featuring the first solo museum exhibition of the late Devin Leonardi. The exhibition displays 34 of the artist's works, including watercolors and small oil paintings, spanning his first cycle of work in 2005 to his last works made in 2014. Leonardi's imagery richly depicts the twilight of the American landscape, the mythology of westward expansion, and the dialectic between modern and contemporary image, as seen in his paintings' adaptations of photographic source material. Harkening back to an earlier period of American history and following its folkways, Leonardi constructed Americana paintings of pioneers, journeymen, and classical figures as well as stunning landscapes of plains, mountains and newly forming cities using vintage photographs from the 1850s to 1880s.
