Franklin G. Burroughs • Simeon B. Chapin Art Museum, 3100 South Ocean Blvd., beside Springmaid Beach, Myrtle Beach. Through Sept. 17 - "Feast / Local: Photography by Brant Barrett. Local photographer Brant Barrett hits the road to highlight the Grand Strand's food scene in unexpected ways not always observed by the millions of tourists who come annually for the area's pristine beaches. With well over 1,800 restaurants (Huffington Post cited us as one of the U.S.'s top 15 "restaurant-crazy cities" a few years back), the Strand's food scene may seem obvious, but a deeper look uncovers the alternative food venues familiar chiefly to locals, like church gatherings, family reunions, mom-and-pop cafes, produce stands, farmers' markets, country stores, backwoods bars and signature food festivals. Barrett's lens will reveal definitive images that speak to our sense of taste, as well as our sense of place. Through Sept. 17 - "Feast Your Eyes / Celebrating the Food of the South - The exhibit will explore our culinary heritage as nourishment and beyond: a form of cultural, political and artistic expression; an enduring source of comfort; sometimes an object of obsession; perhaps a symbol of class, race or gender...and always a cause for celebration. Food and beverage icons, peculiar and particular to the South, will be examined with works in an expansive variety of two and three-dimensional media, including paintings in oil and watercolor; works in pastel; printmaking; photography; sculptures in ceramics, metal, wood and mixed media; textile and fiber arts, and functional art such as handcrafted dining furniture and serving ware. Through Sept. 10 - "Beyond the Horizon," featuring a retrospective by Charleston, SC, based artist, Douglas Balentine. livan's Island, SC], somewhere I hadn't painted before, except maybe when I was very young," Balentine said. "In classical art you have your verticals and horizontals, structure and geometry, but out there it's just this big empty space, this expansiveness." The exhibition includes 43 works - studies, sketches, paintings in progress and finished paintings. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm & Sun., 1-4pm.
