Revolution Mill, 1250 Revolution Mill Drive, Greensboro. Gallery 1250, Ongoing - "Triple Visions: works by Jan Lukens, Michael Northuis and Roy Nydorf." Hours: Mon.-Fri., 11am-6pm, select evening + weekend hours. Contact: (www.janlukens.com).

The Center for Visual Artists Greensboro, second floor of the Cultural Arts Center, 200 North Davie St., Greensboro. Now - "Maggie Fickett: Living in Plein Air!" a virtual exhibit. Best known for creating airy watercolors and deft ink sketches, Fickett, a native New Englander, spent more than 35 years preserving Greensboro sights: iconic businesses, churches, college campuses, and other landmarks. She drew and painted wherever she went — the North Carolina coast, the Piedmont, the mountains — as well as Bermuda, a favorite vacation spot; the rocky coast of Maine, her native state; and the architecture-rich streets of Boston, where she first worked as an advertising illustrator. Fickett returned to Maine in 2014, and hundreds of her works were stored in Greensboro for safekeeping. She died at age 89 on March 26, 2020. The Center for Visual Artists will use proceeds from the exhibit to establish a plein air painting class in Fickett's memory. You can view this virtual exhibition at (<https://www.greensboroart.org/maggie-fickett-collection>). Now - View the online gallery at this link (<https://www.greensboroart.org/online-gallery-new>). Ongoing - Featuring works by member artists from throughout the greater Greensboro area. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm; Weds. till 7pm; & Sun., 2-5pm. Contact: 336/333-7485 or at (www.greensboroart.org).

Weatherspoon Art Museum, University of North Carolina - Greensboro, Cone Building, Tate and Spring Garden Streets, Greensboro. Now - Visit the Museum's website to see these virtual exhibits. The Leah Louise B. Tannenbaum and Louise D. and Herbert S. Falk, Sr. Galleries, Through Nov. 15 - "Bold Expressions: Geometric Abstractions from the Collection". Fun, light-hearted, and beautiful. Many of us crave these elements nowadays, especially during these unprecedented times. As the museum reopens to the campus and the broader community mid-August (pending NC state guidelines), its first-floor galleries will feature artworks that highlight bold color, non-illusionistic space, and hard-edged geometric compositions. Although abstract geometric art has existed as a language of expression since antiquity, it acquired new resonance with European artists in the early twentieth century. Shortly thereafter, a younger generation of American artists began exploring the tradition, especially in the 1960s. Since then the language has remained both essential and vibrant, as these paintings, sculptures, and drawings illustrates. This exhibition is organized by Elaine D. Gustafson, Curator of Collections. Atrium and Lobbies - Featuring works of art complementing current gallery exhibitions which are rotated in the atrium and public areas throughout both floors of the gallery. Tom Otterness' site-specific work, "The Frieze" is permanently installed in the atrium. Sculpture Courtyard - Featuring selections of American sculpture from 1900 to the present from the Weatherspoon Collection and on loan works from contemporary artists. Admission: Free. Hours: Tue., Wed. & Fri., 10am-5pm, Thur., 10am to 9pm and Sat. & Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 336/334-5770 or at (<http://weatherspoon.uncg.edu/>).

Work by Susan Lenz

Hickory Museum of Art, Arts and Science Center, 243 Third Avenue NE, Hickory. Coe Gallery, Sept. 12 - Jan. 24, 2021 - "Suffrage". In conjunction with the History Museum of Catawba County, the Catawba County Library System, and the League of Women Voters, Hickory Museum of Art presents an exhibition celebrating the 100th anniversary of the ratification of the 19th Amendment. The exhibition highlights significant historical happenings that led to the passing of women's right to vote. Responding to a call for artists, 6 regional artists will be chosen to create artwork for the exhibition that responds to themes associated with the women's suffrage movement. Exhibition panels are being created by Catawba Valley Community College graphic design students. Sept. 12 - Jan. 24, 2021 - The exhibition will also feature an installation called "The Feminist To Do List" by fiber artist Susan Lenz. The installation is a collection of forty-two altered, vintage quilt blocks presented in 10" diameter wooden embroidery hoops with call-to-action phrases (such as Run for Office, Speak Up, Protest Peacefully, Challenge the Status Quo, etc.) stitched on each one. Ongoing - "Discover Folk Art: Unique Visions by Southern Self-taught Artists". Highlands

The Bascom, a center for the visual arts, 323 Franklin Rd., covered bridge entrance at the end of Main Street, Highlands. Joel Gallery, Ongoing - "Selections From Our Permanent Collection: Made Possible Through Bel Canto". In 1992, Richard Joel had a vision of melding his love of music and visual art to raise needed funds for the arts in Highlands and thus the Bel Canto Recital was born. The recital, held each September, has raised much-needed funds for The Bascom and other local arts organizations. We are proud to showcase some of the works purchased for our permanent collection thanks to Bel Canto! Education Gallery, Ongoing - The Bascom offers our students and instructors an opportunity to display their creative works from workshops and classes. The perspectives of these talented individuals reveal self-expression, cultural awareness and technical discipline. These ongoing displays expose the viewer to the analysis, invention, exploration and decision making processes used by students during the development of ideas into a work of art. Hours: Tue. - Sat., 10am-5pm. Contact: 828/526-4949 or at (www.thebascom.org).
