With galleries temporarily closed to the public, the Gregg Museum has created a virtual tour of Mary Ann Scherr's All is Possible at (https://gregg.arts.ncsu.edu/exhibitions/all-is-possible/virtual-tour/). Descriptions of each display are available by clicking the blue bubbles. Links to online photo galleries are available in the orange bubbles. Once you click on the tour, you'll see an icon on the lower left that links to a highlight reel, and it will guide you through the gallery as it was designed. Enjoy! The exhibition is a tribute to a larger-than-life designer who influenced the metal and design communities for over 6 decades. The exhibition title communicates her zest for life, as well as the many creative possibilities she saw in metal design, leading to a decades-long career in the field. When Scherr (Akron, OH 1921- Raleigh, NC 2016) moved from New York City to Raleigh in 1989, she was already an internationally renowned designer who had chaired the first Crafts Department at Parsons School of Design in Manhattan, innovated metal-etching techniques, and pioneered jewelry and accessories that also functioned as body monitors. And yet, for the next 30 years, she strived to enrich the arts and life of her new community in North Carolina, where she taught for decades at Penland School of Crafts, Duke University, Meredith College and finally, NC State University Crafts Center. Ongoing - Following its grand reopening on Aug. 26, 2017, one of NC State University's most historic buildings is now the permanent home of the Gregg Museum of Art & Design.
